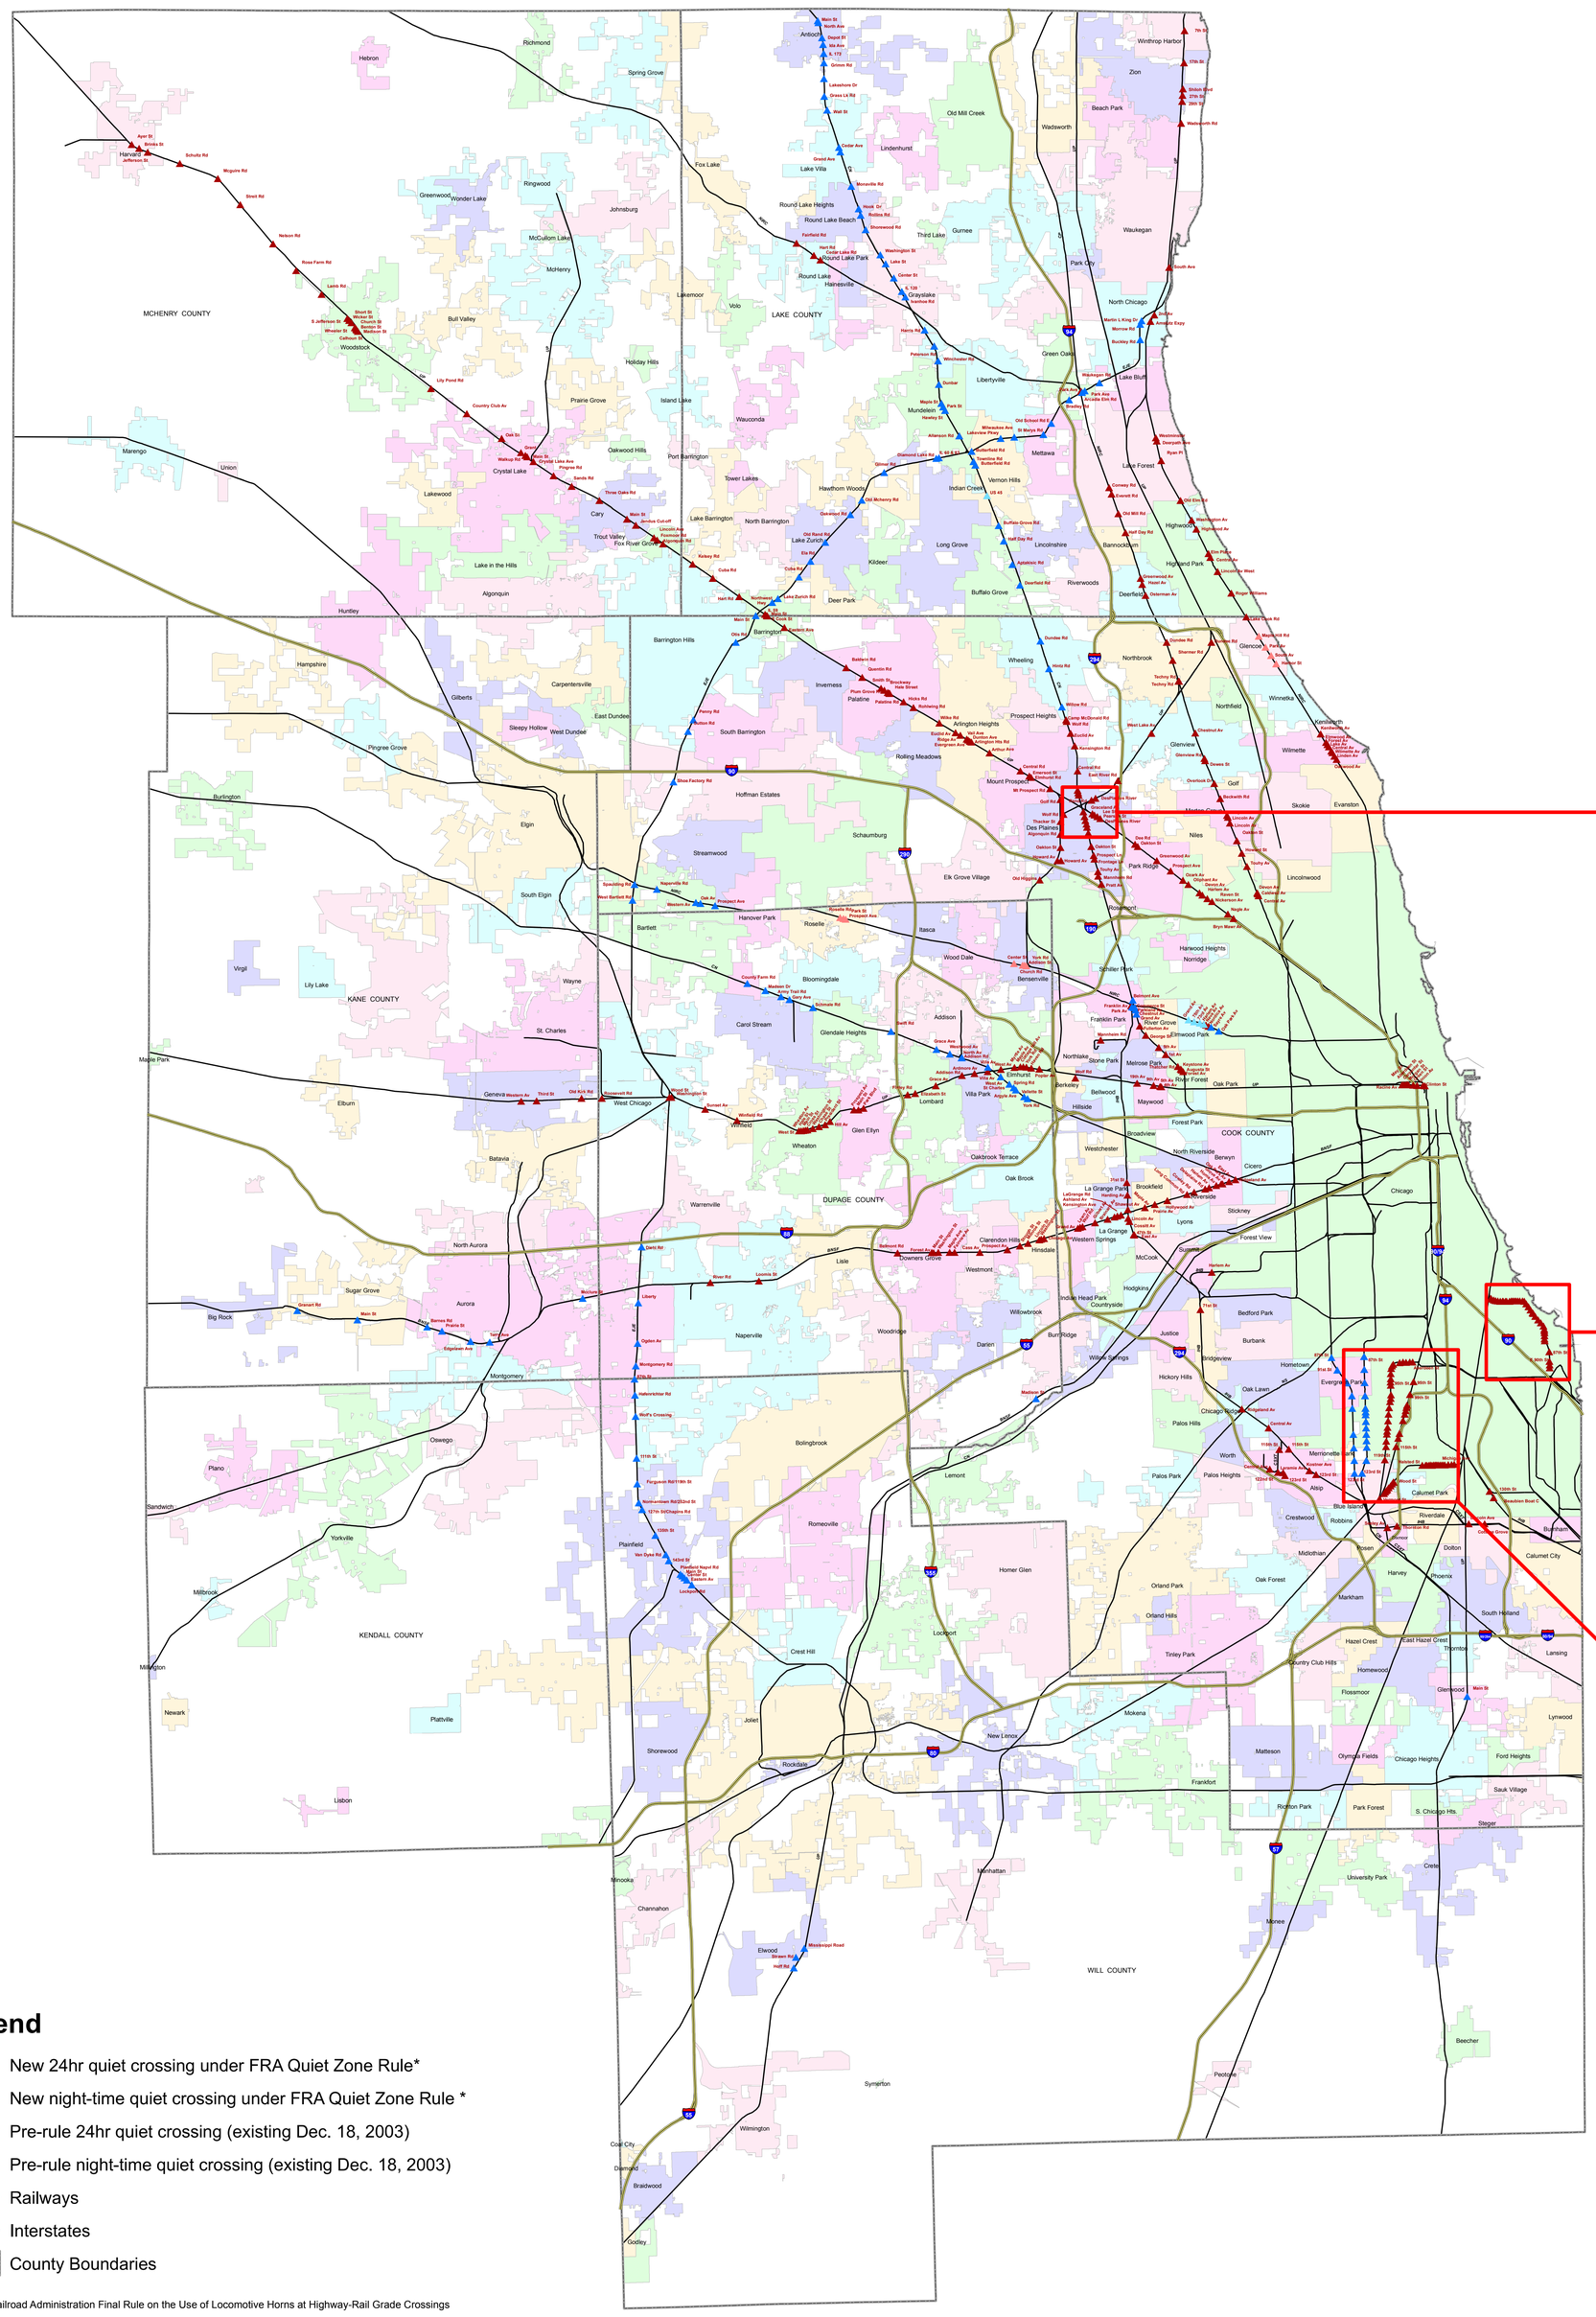
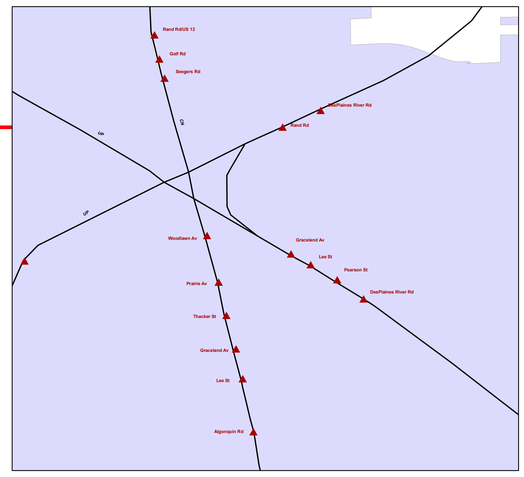
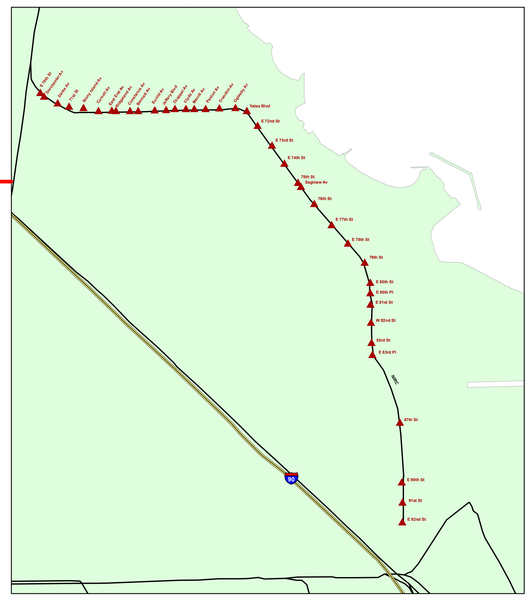
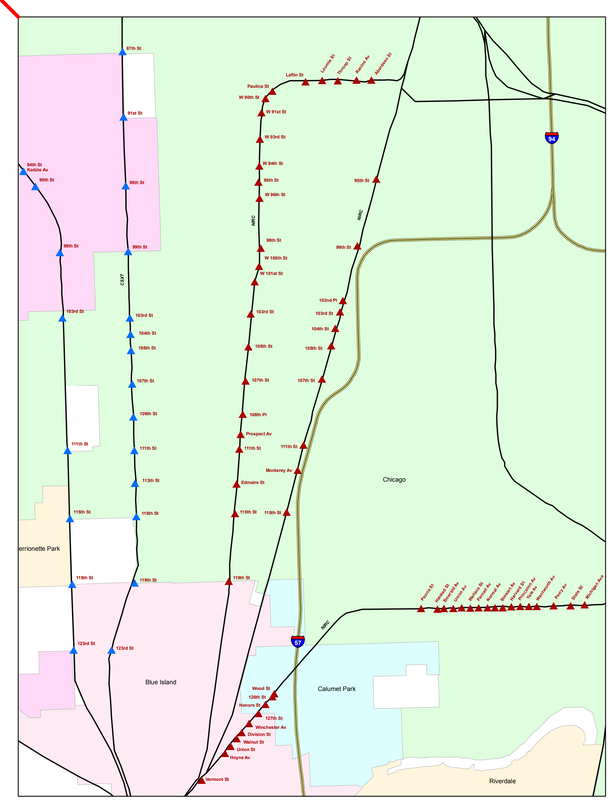
Quiet Railroad Crossings in Northeastern Illinois

Public At Grade Railroad Crossings with vehicular traffic in the seven county region of northeastern Illinois which are currently excused from train horn sounding 24 hours a day or at night-time.









Legend

- New 24hr quiet crossing under FRA Quiet Zone Rule*
- New night-time quiet crossing under FRA Quiet Zone Rule *
- Pre-rule 24hr quiet crossing (existing Dec. 18, 2003)
- Pre-rule night-time quiet crossing (existing Dec. 18, 2003)
- Railways
- Interstates
- County Boundaries

* Federal Railroad Administration Final Rule on the Use of Locomotive Horns at Highway-Rail Grade Crossings

Data Sources
Quiet Crossings, Illinois Commerce Commission
Railways, 2007 National Transportation Atlas Database
Municipalities, Counties, Interstates, CMAP
NAD83 State Plane IL east, ft., projected coord. system

Map created Nov. 2009, Jan Drennan

Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning

0 5 10 20 Miles

N