

Debra Shore
Commissioner

Debra Shore was elected to the Board of Commissioners of the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago in 2006. Commissioner Shore serves as Chairman of the Committee on Research and Development and the Committee on State Legislation and Rules.

Commissioner Shore received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Goucher College, a Master of Liberal Arts degree from Johns Hopkins University and a Master of Fine Arts degree from Columbia College. Until December 2006, Commissioner Shore was the founding editor of Chicago Wilderness, a quarterly magazine named by the Chicago Tribune one of the country's 50 best magazines.

In 2007 Commissioner Shore was named a Fellow of the Field Museum's Division of Environment, Culture and Conservation. She serves on the Women's Board of the University of Chicago and was a founding board member of Friends of the Forest Preserves. Commissioner Shore has one son, and lives with her partner in Skokie.