Got to 2040

June 3rd, 2009

The Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning holds the first of dozens of "highly interactive" community workshops to let residents contribute their thoughts on transportation and land use goals for the 2040 comprehensive regional plan.

The first workshop takes place Thursday, June 4 at 7 p.m. the Unity Temple in Oak Park; next week workshops are planned for Vernon Hills and Chicago's West Side. (Full schedule is here.) CMAP also has a GO TO 2040 web tool where people can fashion their own growth scenarios, as well as kiosks at Metra stations, parks, and libraries.
