The Burnham Plan Centennial

The Library is partnering with the Burnham Plan Centennial to offer hundreds of ways for the people of Chicago's metropolitan region to dream big and plan boldly. This 100th anniversary of the Plan of Chicago is once again stirring a diverse community to action on a grand scale – building the best possible quality of life for all. See what you can do at www.BurnhamPlan100.org. And aim high!

Have your say!

How should the region plan for the year 2040? This summer, the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP) will be asking residents to help us prioritize regional investments in transportation and land use. The Information you contribute will help CMAP develop a preferred scenario that will best reflect the region's desired future. Have your say at www.goto2040.org or attend a workshop in your area, click here for a local listing.

Wi-Fi is here!

Bring your laptop and enjoy our high-speed wireless internet access, FREE!
