

Mark your calendar to attend the Center for Watershed Protection's 2014 Watershed & Stormwater Management Webcast Series

- FREE!!!
 - Brown bag – bring your own lunch
 - RSVP to Susan Vancil
svancil@lakecountyil.gov
- 1 CEC/2 PDH per webcast

The series will explore all the elements that promote successful implementation of stormwater management best management practices (BMPs), and how regional and local TMDLs are increasingly driving the selection and implementation of BMPs at the local level.

Sponsored by Lake County Stormwater Management Commission

Webcasts run 12 – 2 p.m. See next page for webcast descriptions.

Wednesday, February 12, 2014: Reimagining the Parking Lot & Roadway as a Stormwater Practice

Lake County Division of Transportation, 600 W. Winchester, 1st FL Conference Room, Libertyville

Wednesday, March 12, 2014: The Life of a Stormwater Practice: The Role of Local Codes

Lake County Division of Transportation, 600 W. Winchester, 1st FL Conference Room, Libertyville

Wednesday, April 9, 2014: The Life of a Stormwater Practice: Design & Construction of BMPs

Lake County Division of Transportation, 600 W. Winchester, 1st FL Conference Room, Libertyville

Wednesday, May 21, 2014: The Life of a Stormwater Practice: BMP Maintenance

Lake County Division of Transportation, 600 W. Winchester, 1st FL Conference Room, Libertyville

Wednesday, June 11, 2014: How to Pick The Right Vegetation for Bioretention & Its Cousins

Lake County Central Permit Facility, 500 W. Winchester Road, 2nd FL Conference Room, Libertyville

Wednesday, September 10, 2014: Stream Restoration as a Pollutant Reduction Strategy

Lake County Central Permit Facility, 500 W. Winchester Road, 2nd FL Conference Room, Libertyville

Wednesday, October 8, 2014: Implementing TMDLs: Local TMDLs & Regional/River Basin TMDLs: A Happy Engagement or a Shotgun Wedding?

Gurnee Police Facility, 100 N. O'Plaine Road, Gurnee

Wednesday, November 12, 2014: Implementing TMDLs: Retrofitting Existing Stormwater Ponds & Basins

Lake County Division of Transportation, 600 W. Winchester, 1st FL Conference Room, Libertyville