- 4.0 GO TO 2040 Update: Public Comment Period – Drew Williams-Clark, CMAP
A draft update of GO TO 2040 was released for public comment on June 13. A series of open houses are taking place around the region through the end of the public comment period, August 1, to address questions and solicit input from the public. Staff anticipates Board and MPO approval of the update in October, per federal requirement. Throughout the process, staff have updated the committee on the status of the update, including the Financial Plan and Major Capital Projects. This included substantial committee discussion around the updated Implementation Actions for each plan recommendation at meetings from September, 2013 through January, 2014. Staff also sought committee input on updated plan Indicators and targets at the November and February meetings. At this time, staff is seeking committee input on the draft plan update documents as released for public comment.
