

2022 CALL FOR PROJECTS

Chicago Metropolitan
Agency for Planning

Regional Transportation
Authority

Summary of applications received

70 total applications received from 50 different applicants

55 applications will be evaluated by CMAP, 15 applications will be evaluated by RTA

We received applications from local governments, community organizations, and government agencies

- Many applications are from cohort 3 and 4 communities

Applications by project type

Type of assistance	Anticipated number awarded	Number of applications
Bicycle and pedestrian plans - (CMAP)	3	6
Capital Improvement Programming (CIP) - (CMAP)	6	3
Comprehensive plans - (CMAP)	2	21
Corridor plans - (CMAP or RTA)	10	13
Developer Discussion Panels - (RTA)	NA	3
Homes for a Changing Region - (CMAP)	NA	3
Local Road Safety plans - (CMAP)	2	1
Neighborhood plans (City of Chicago)	2	1
NEXT Program - (CMAP)	4	3
Pavement management plans	9	9
ROI (Resource-Opportunity-Impact) Program - (CMAP)	6	1
Transit Neighborhood Mobility Improvement Plans - (RTA)	NA	1
Transit-Oriented Development (TOD) Plans - (RTA)	NA	4
Transit-Oriented Development (TOD) Zoning Code Updates - (RTA)	NA	1

Applications by community cohort

Community Cohort	Number of applications
Cohort 1 (low and very low need)	22
Cohort 2 (moderate need)	12
Cohort 3 (high need)	14
Cohort 4 (very high need)	22

Thematic priorities overview

Does the proposed project:

Cultivate innovative approaches to implement ON TO 2050 with a focus on:

- A transportation system that works better for everyone
- A robust inclusive economy / inclusive growth
- A more resilient transportation network

Thematic priorities overview (continued)

Does the proposed project:

Strengthen planning capacity in communities with disadvantaged populations

Increase community empowerment and equitable engagement

Implement previously developed plans

Facilitate collaboration across jurisdictions

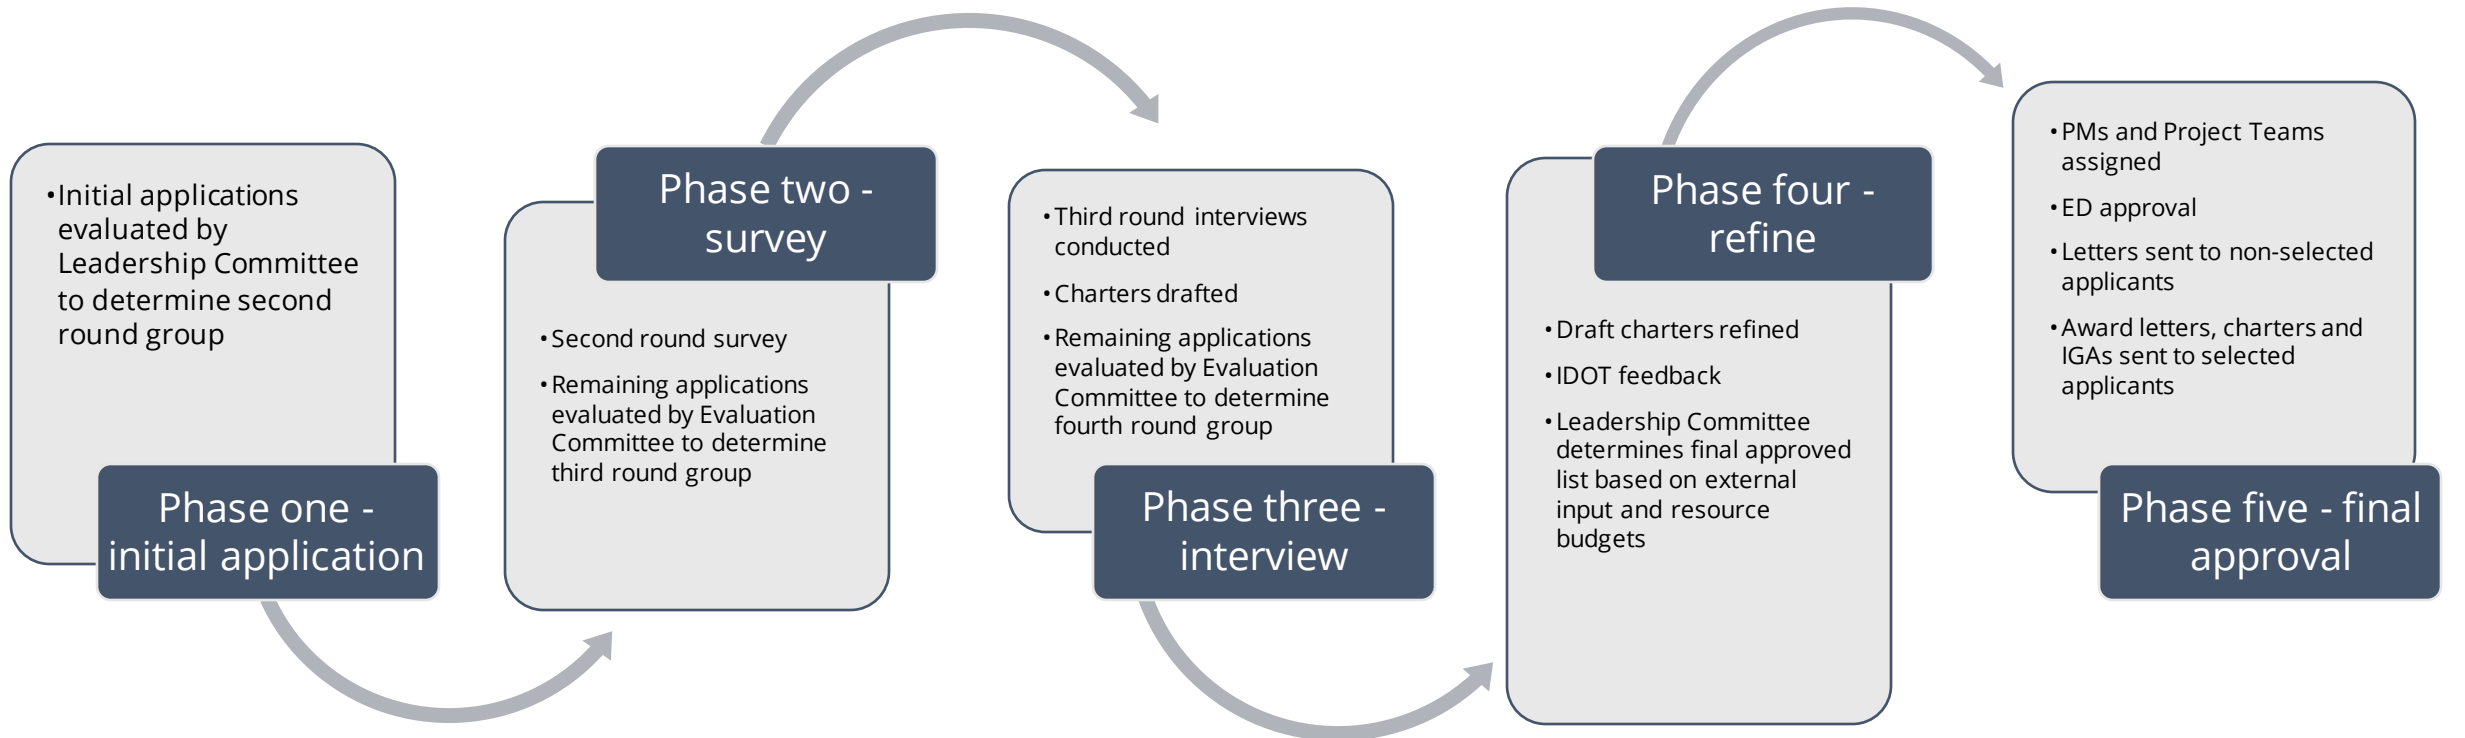

CMAP evaluation process

November

December

January

CMAP evaluation process

March

July

- Project scopes / project teams are finalized
- Procurement documents are developed
- Projects Kick-off between mid-March and mid-July

Project Kick-off

Thank you.

Jonathan Burch, CMAP

jburch@cmmap.illinois.gov

314.609.1297

Lily Neppl, CMAP

lneppl@cmmap.illinois.gov

312.386.8610

