4.0 Illinois Route 53 Corridor Plan

Ferhat Zerín and Perry Georgopoulos from Ginkgo Planning and Design will discuss their work on behalf of Will County in preparation of a multi-jurisdictional plan for a 25 mile stretch of Illinois Route 53, from Joliet to Braidwood, with the aim of creating a major tourism destination for the Chicago region.

The area is anchored by a wide variety of assets – historic Route 66, the Midewin National Tallgrass Prairie, the Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery, the Chicagoland Speedway and Raceway, the country's largest intermodal port, and historic downtowns and main streets.

The goal is to establish a strong and unified identity, a framework for connecting the destinations and opportunities for future developments. The intense outreach effort to date has garnered great support for the vision that this area could become a major weekend getaway destination for the Chicago region.

consider strategies for the greenway plan.
