Illinois Housing Development Authority (IHDA)

COVID Rental Assistance Program

Illinois Rental Payment Program (ILRPP)

ILRPP is an emergency rental assistance program designed to support households in Illinois that are unable to pay rent due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Applicants are eligible for up to 15 months of assistance. The grant can cover the past due rent from the previous 12 months and future rental assistance for the next three months, if deemed necessary. The maximum grant amount is $25,000. Payments are made directly to the housing provider on behalf of the tenant. If housing provider does not accept payment, assistance will be provided directly to the tenant. Housing provider must waive all fees and penalties related to household's occupancy of the unit. Housing provider may not initiate or engage in eviction proceedings due to any past due rent for the coverage period.

Eligibility

To qualify, applicants need to:

- Household's total gross income cannot exceed 80 percent area median income (AMI) for the area.
- The household has experienced a loss of income due to COVID-19, for example:
 - Being laid off
 - Place of employment has closed
 - Reduction in hours of work
 - Loss of spousal/child support
 - Inability to find work due to COVID-19
 - Having to stay home with children due to closure of day care/school
 - Unable to participate in previous employment due to the workplace's high risk of severe illness from COVID-19
 - At risk of homelessness or housing instability

Eligibility

To qualify, applicants need to:

- Have experienced a COVID-related financial hardship. This could include having lost income due directly or indirectly to COVID-19.
 - For example, you may qualify if your income decreased for reasons related to COVID-19 including, but not limited to, losing your job; having your hours reduced; being furloughed, becoming sick; leaving your job because you were at high risk of COVID-19 and needed to self-isolate; and/or quitting your job or reducing your hours to take care of family member(s).
- Be at risk of homelessness or housing instability. This could include being behind on rent and/or utility payments. You may also qualify for certain programs if you have other issues that put you at risk of losing your housing.
 - For example, you may qualify if you have a past due rent notice or invoice, letter or other communication from landlord indicating you are behind on rent, a late or unpaid utility bill, a lockout notice or eviction notice.
- Have a total household income below 80 percent of AMI:

Cook County

COVID Rental Assistance Program

Emergency Rental Assistance Program

Cook County’s Emergency Rental Assistance Program, funded by the federal COVID-19 relief funds, will disburse $73 million in rental assistance to suburban Cook County residents. The assistance will help renters pay up to 12 months of missed rent and utilities payments (up to $15,000 per household) and up to three months of future rent payments. Payments will be made directly to landlord and utility company.

Eligibility

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Live in suburban Cook County and rent their home (Landlords may apply on behalf of eligible tenants).
- Lack access to other support (e.g., don’t live in public housing or receive rental assistance from other programs during the same time period).
- Have proof of *financial hardship due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

*Loss of income, working fewer hours, being furloughed, quitting job because you are at high risk of COVID-19, and losing works to stay home to care for a child.

- Have a household annual income at or below these requirements:

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Income	$51,000	$58,250	$65,550	$72,800	$78,650	$84,450	$90,300	$96,100

How to Apply

Renters: Between March 11, 2021 until April 2, 2021 suburban Cook County renters can apply for emergency rental assistance via the online portal (hacc.rentrelief.com/content2/access/login). Once they apply, their landlord will be notified and asked to complete their portion of the application.

Landlords: Between March 11, 2021 until April 9, 2021 suburban Cook County landlords may apply for emergency rental assistance on behalf of their tenants via the online portal (hacc.rentrelief.com/content2/access/login). Once they apply, their tenant will be notified and asked to complete their portion of the application.
