REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS (RFP) NO. 249

South Cook County Truck Routing and Communities Study

The Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP) invites consultants to submit proposals for the South Cook County Truck Routing and Communities Study, as described in this scope of work. Please read each section carefully for information regarding the proposal and submittal instructions.

SECTION 1: Background and General Information

About CMAP

The Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP) is our region's official comprehensive planning organization. The agency and its partners have developed ON TO 2050, a comprehensive plan that builds upon its predecessor GO TO 2040, to help the seven counties and 284 communities of northeastern Illinois implement strategies that address community, prosperity, the environment, governance and mobility. See www.cmap.illinois.gov for more information.

General Information

As a result of responses to this RFP, CMAP plans to review submissions and conduct interviews with selected consultants it determines can best meet the requirements outlined below. Negotiations will be held on both the scope and the cost to select the consultant that CMAP believes can best satisfy its requirements at rates it perceives are reasonable for the services provided. Subject to "Reservation of Rights" below, it is anticipated that a contract will be awarded for the work described. The contract awarded will be for a period ending 18 months from final contract signing.

SECTION 2: Scope of Project and Procurement Details

Project Background

ON TO 2050, CMAP's Comprehensive Plan for the region, recommends strategies to maintain the region's status as North America's freight hub, while balancing community concerns and the economic benefits of freight. As a step to implementing ON TO 2050 and the Regional Strategic Freight Direction, CMAP is undertaking the South Suburban Cook County Truck Routing and Communities Study in partnership with Cook County and suburban municipalities. The study aims to improve truck routing and infrastructure within two adjacent study areas as well as to address community concerns and safety issues that can be imposed by substantial truck traffic.

The two study areas of the South Suburban Cook Truck Routing and Communities Study are largely within one of the six freight land-use clusters that CMAP has identified in the region. The study areas include a number of intermodal facilities and a significant concentration of manufacturing, warehousing, and logistics businesses. The presence of a high number of at-grade railroad crossings, along with residential and commercial activities, and the continued growth of freight-related industry have resulted in traffic congestion and conflict. A majority of the study areas overlap with economically disconnected areas \(EDAs\), which have a high concentration of residents that are low-income, in addition to a high concentration of minority and/or limited English proficiency residents. This study must support and improve goods movement, while also providing solutions to limit and mitigate the air quality, noise, safety, congestion and other impacts that truck traffic can impose on surrounding communities, particularly for EDAs.

The selected consultant team will work under the direction of CMAP, but is expected to interact frequently with representatives of Cook County and partners, as listed in Task 2: Outreach and Engagement.

Project Description

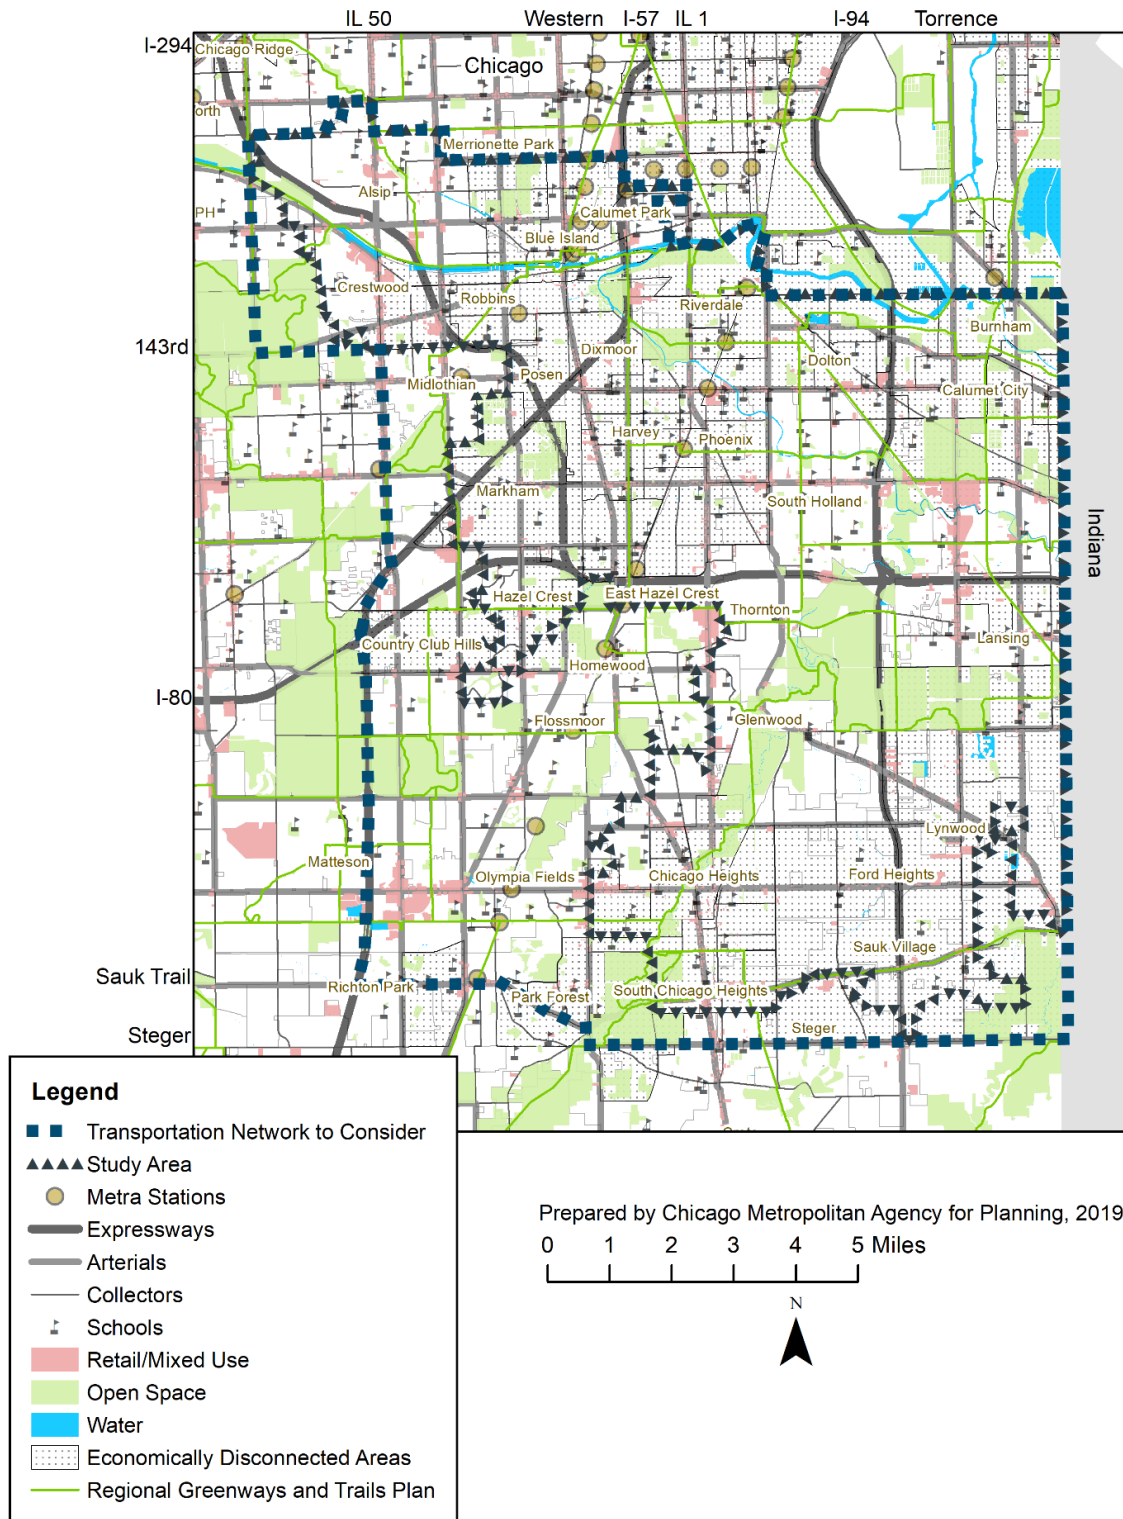

Study area:

The study will cover two study areas located in south suburban Cook County, north of Interstate 80 and south of Interstate 80, and includes 25 communities: Alsip, Blue Island, Burnham, Calumet Park, Calumet City, Chicago Heights, Crestwood, Dixmoor, Dolton, East Hazel Crest, Ford Heights, Glenwood, Harvey, Hazel Crest, Lansing, Lynwood, Markham, Phoenix, Posen, Riverdale, Robbins, Sauk Village, South Chicago Heights, South Holland, and Thornton. Deliverables throughout the project will be prepared for each individual study area.

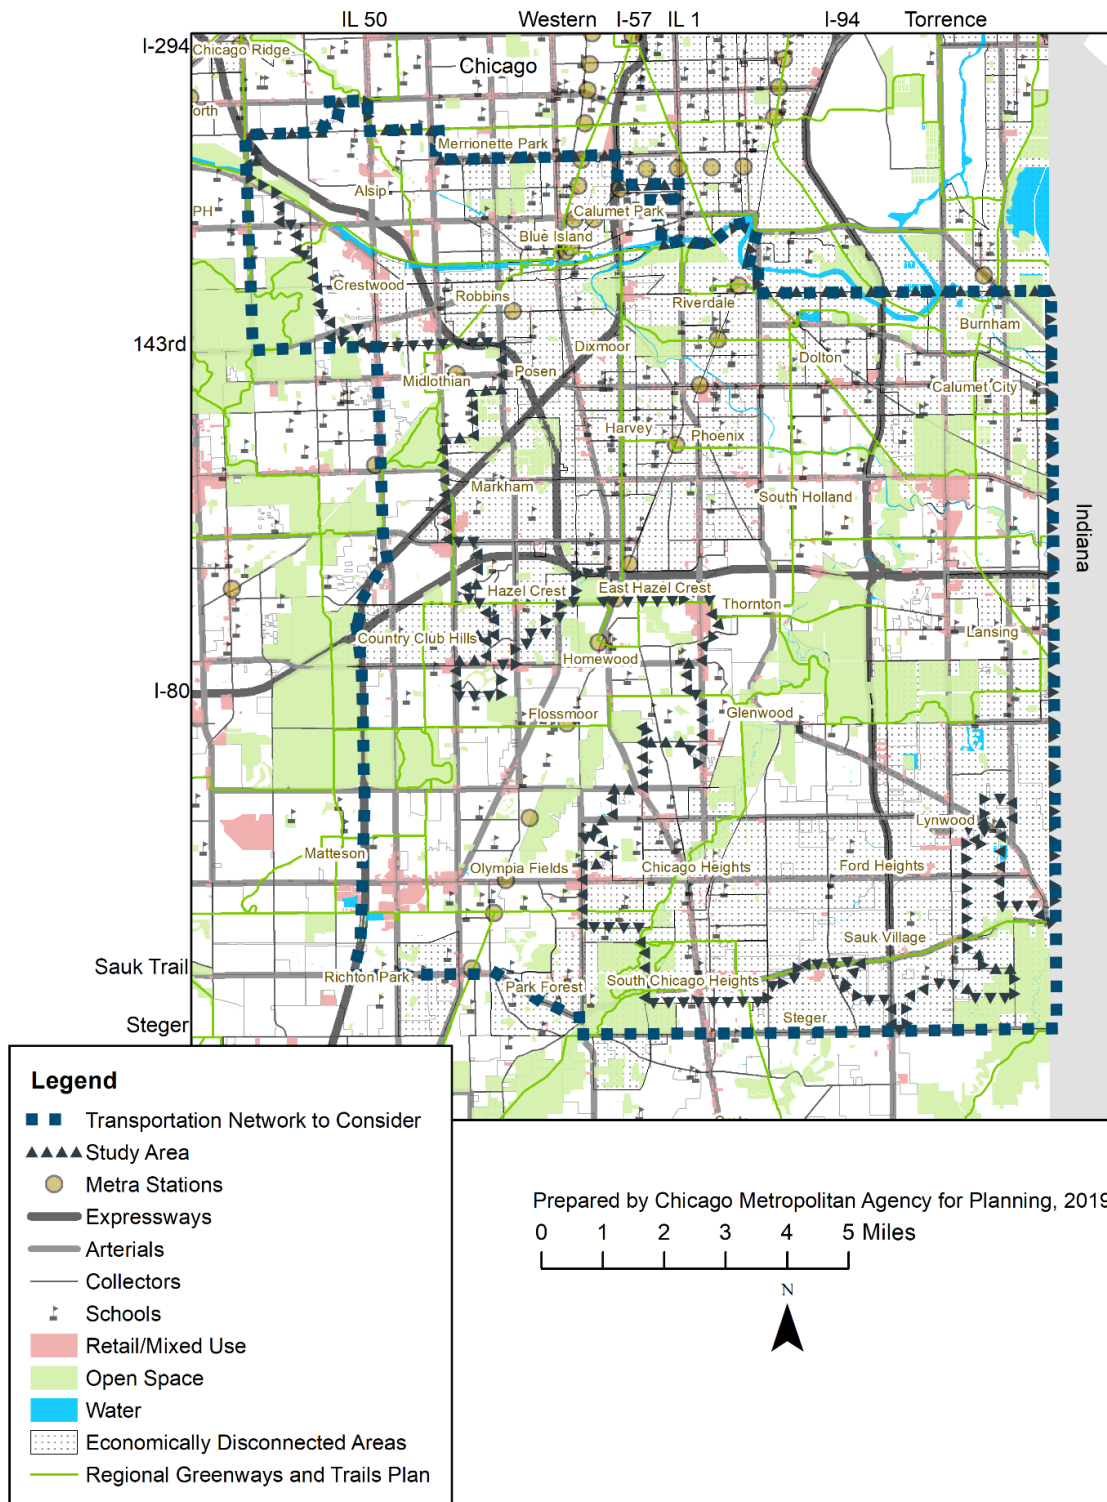

The overarching study area is roughly bounded by the City of Chicago and 115th Street to the north, study area community boundaries to the south and west, and the Indiana State Line to the east. Improving truck movement through the overarching study area may require data collection and analysis for nearby roadways within a broader transportation network bounded by the City of Chicago/115th Street to the north; Harlem Avenue/143rd Street/Cicero Avenue/I-57 to the west; Sauk Trail/Western Avenue/Steger Road to the south; and the Indiana State Line to the east (indicated as “Transportation Network to Consider” on the map).

See the maps on the next two pages for study area boundaries, a sample of community assets, and a sample of freight assets.

South Suburban Cook County Truck Routing and Communities Study Community Map

Planning context and objectives:

This study will be a collaborative effort to improve truck routing and reduce the negative impacts that truck traffic can have within affected communities. There are limited connected truck routes across the subregion, particularly continuous east/west through roadways. In addition to new routes, the study should identify delivery-management and demand management policies; minimize traffic congestion and conflict; support continued economic development and growth of freight-related industry through infrastructure improvement; provide truck routing which minimizes conflicts with greenways, trails and open spaces; and identify and provide solutions for related quality of life issues such as safety, noise, congestion, and pollution. This study and resulting recommendations should also take into account the existing industrial and commercial areas; the stock of vacant or disinvested areas; residential areas, particularly low income, minority areas; and the amount of truck congestion that occurs at several industrial areas.

An effective truck route network can reduce community impacts by directing trucks to the routes built for them, and away from residential neighborhoods or sensitive areas. Insufficient infrastructure can also be an issue, and truck network studies help communities identify the capital investments needed to accommodate truck traffic on desired routes. In some portions of the study area, restrictions established by localities change at jurisdictional borders. Coordinated networks increase compliance with the law and communicate to the trucking industry which roads are best suited to accommodate their size and weight.

In 2017, CMAP completed the O'Hare Truck Routing Study to guide the designation of the truck route network for the O'Hare area. This study should use the A-D level routing system in the "Proposed Truck Route Network" as a model, but will need to consider the impact of Public Acts 100-0343 and 101-0328 (a summary of these changes can be found in this CMAP Presentation).

In addition to creating the truck routing plan as detailed above, this study will provide related recommendations and identify capital improvements necessary to implement the truck routing plan. A main objective of this study is to identify specific truck routing improvements and prepare required information appropriate to pursue a variety of funding opportunities. However, engineering will not be completed as part of this study. Policies and practices to make the best use of the existing network should also be addressed. This study will focus on trucks of standard size, weight, and length, not oversize/overweight trucks.

In developing this study, the project team should coordinate with, and build on where appropriate, several ongoing and recently completed studies within the larger project area. Cook County has completed the Cook County Freight Plan, which notes the importance of coordinated truck route designation, restriction, and enforcement. Additionally, CMAP has completed or has underway several Local Technical Assistance (LTA) projects within the study area, such as the FY 2020 comprehensive/mobility plan in Posen, comprehensive and capital improvement plans in Blue Island, a comprehensive plan in Calumet City, a comprehensive plan in Chicago Heights, a comprehensive plan in Lansing, and a comprehensive plan in South Holland. The consultant team should be prepared to incorporate the recommendations of these plans into the truck routing study as appropriate.

Project duration:

The contract for the project is expected to be approximately 18 months in length.

Project cost:

The cost of this project is anticipated to be between $250,000 and $300,000. Consultants should produce a project scope that involves a level of effort consistent with this cost range.

Scope of Services

As stated above, this overarching study consists of two study areas. Deliverables need to be prepared for the separate study areas. Consultants should clearly describe the expected deliverables in the proposal and should explicitly tie these to the project tasks. Consultants will have flexibility in the format of deliverables, the order in which tasks are undertaken, and similar details, but should accomplish all of the tasks described below.

PLEASE NOTE: Drafts of all deliverables must be provided to CMAP, Cook County and partner agencies for review at least two weeks before their release to a Steering Committee or the public.

Project tasks include:

Task 1: Project Management

In order to facilitate management, coordination and communication within the planning process and with project partners, the consultant should assume frequent and regular interaction with the CMAP project manager, project partners and steering committee, as well as core stakeholders identified by CMAP and Cook County throughout the process. The consultant will be responsible for holding regular project coordination meetings, including producing all meeting materials, notices, attendance lists, minutes/summaries, etc. A project time-line/schedule should be provided in the proposal.

Other project management tasks necessary for an efficient and effective planning process should be considered by the consultant, such as use of specific project management tools, and included in the project proposal.

Deliverables:

- Attendance lists, meeting materials, and meeting summaries, broken down by each study area

Task 2: Outreach and Engagement

The consultant should provide an Engagement Strategy that broaches engagement with the general public as well as stakeholders to help identify and address community concerns for each of the two study areas. Thorough engagement of the public, particularly potentially impacted community members and community groups, is important to this process. It is envisioned that this task will require substantial effort and resources in order to facilitate sufficient dialogue, deliver information to stakeholders, discuss costs, benefits, opportunities, and challenges in and around the study areas, and advance a collective vision and an acceptable path forward for the study areas. Each study area will have a separate engagement strategy.

The Engagement Strategies should outline an approach, for each study area, to understand not only community concerns and aspirations, but also existing conditions and the political realities that could influence decision making and priorities. The consultant should also be prepared to engage community leaders and other stakeholders in a dialogue about developing complementary outcomes for industry, the environment, and quality of life for communities and residents.

The Engagement Strategies should include the overall outreach and engagement framework, approach, process and schedule, strategies and format, and listing of materials and/or media to be developed to implement that framework, including notices and announcements, publicity materials, presentations, display boards, project website, etc. A variety of engagement strategies should be considered in order to gather the information necessary to prepare a final deliverable that responds to stakeholder interests and concerns. Alternatives that respond to the challenges and constraints of public engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic should also be prepared. CMAP and Cook County will review and provide feedback on the engagement strategies and materials at the beginning of and throughout the project.

Key Stakeholder Engagement:

Work on this project will be advised by key stakeholders in the form of two steering committees (one for each study area), working groups subordinate to the steering committees, and other possible structures, as deemed appropriate to address specific issues or areas. The consultant should propose a structure to effectively involve key stakeholders as part of their proposal, although this may be modified following consultant selection. The steering committees may consist of some or all of the following interests and entities: CMAP; Cook County (various departments); IDOT; study area municipalities; South Suburban Mayors and Managers Association (SSMMA), the South Suburban Economic Growth Initiative, Southwest Council of Mayors, community entities such as neighborhood, economic development, and environmental groups; as well as representatives from transportation, distribution, and logistics (TDL) stakeholders. Additionally, a larger set of stakeholders may be utilized for interviews, focus groups, or other means, or be otherwise engaged to a degree sufficient to adequately reflect their interests and to generate buy-in to the process and outcomes. In addition to the entities listed above, these may also include state and federal agencies with interests or investments in the study areas. The study also requires coordination among up to 25 municipalities. Many of these groups will need to be consulted at several points throughout the plan development process, and the consultant's proposal should allow time for stakeholders to review draft and final deliverables and provide input throughout the planning process.

The study areas substantively overlap with residential areas that are negatively impacted by truck activity, in particular concentrations of low-income residents and persons of color, as well as major industrial and freight corridors. The consultant should address their approach to adequately engage residents of the many EDAs in the study areas. Outreach will need to be specialized to accommodate these various study area constituencies and their unique needs and concerns, such as: targeting community group and residential concerns, especially in EDAs; improving the study areas' economic advantages by addressing the needs of industrial and commercial areas; identifying and protecting environmentally sensitive areas; and addressing mobility and safety issues resulting from truck congestion. As such, this project presents an opportunity to further support and solidify the economic strength of the study areas, address environmental justice concerns and utilize innovative approaches to goods movement and congestion reduction.

The consultant will be responsible for the creation of attendance lists and meeting summaries of all public and stakeholder engagement activities for each study area.

Deliverables:

- Engagement strategy and materials for each study area
- Attendance lists and meeting summaries

Task 3: Existing Conditions Reports

The consultant should explore the existing conditions in the study areas to develop an understanding of current issues and opportunities. They should identify and summarize key considerations, trends, and drivers for the study areas, as well as key challenges and opportunities. These reports will provide the foundation, information, and framework for the tasks that follow.

Suggested topics and data for the Existing Conditions Reports are listed in detail in Appendix A at the end of this RFP. However, alternative topics and data can be presented in proposals consistent with the consultant's experience, project approach, and expected level of effort. Regardless of the approach, appropriate stakeholder engagement should inform the data collection and analysis process.

Quantitative and qualitative data on existing conditions should be collected via research, data collection, GIS mapping, field reconnaissance, interviews and focus groups, and secondary sources such as public and commercially available datasets. Some of the necessary data may be available through CMAP, the study area municipalities, IDOT, Cook County, or other sources, including recent or ongoing studies. However, the consultant should not exclusively rely on these sources for data, and other data will have to be secured and/or collected by the consultant. Unless there is substantive reason to collect data that already exists, it is anticipated that the consultant will strive to use existing data and avoid duplication.

The Existing Conditions Reports will be stand-alone products, which will additionally serve as an appendix to the final report.

Deliverables:

- Existing Conditions Reports for each study area, which include charts, maps, and other graphics to support the text description of the topics listed above

Task 4: Vision and Goals

Following the preparation of the Existing Conditions Reports, the consultant should build on that information and stakeholder engagement to develop a vision and set of goals for each study area. These should be short documents that capture the vision and goals of the steering committees and other relevant stakeholders. The products should be visionary, yet ultimately achievable. This step will require significant engagement with the steering committees and other key partners. The consultant should specify in their proposal how they intend to reach consensus on vision and goals among the many interested stakeholders while addressing the needs of EDAs and industry.

Deliverables:

- Statements of Vision and Goals

Task 5: Draft Recommended Truck Routes for Each Study Area

The Draft Recommended Truck Routes should recommend truck routes and truck restrictions, that address community concerns about truck traffic and industrial impacts while also supporting freight and manufacturing activity in the study areas. The Draft Recommended Truck Routes will be developed by taking into consideration safety issues, truck congestion, environmentally sensitive areas, quality of life, and environmental justice concerns to meet the vision and goals for each study area. Both short-term and long-term timeframes should be addressed.

Additionally, the plans should be accompanied by maps and a list of route changes. Recommendations to change National Highway System, National Network, and Critical Urban Freight Corridor designations should be included as appropriate.

The Draft Truck Routing Recommendations shall be reviewed by the Steering Committee and municipalities within the two study areas. The public will also be given the opportunity to discuss and provide comment. Based on this feedback, the consultant team shall determine the selected Truck Routes for advancement.

Deliverables:

Draft Recommended Truck Routes Documents for each study area, with review and comment opportunities for the Steering Committee, municipalities, and public for each study area.

Task 6: Draft Recommended Community Strategies and Implementation Plans for Each Study Area

Based on the truck routes selected for advancement in Task 5, The Draft Recommended Community Strategies and Implementation Plans will present capital improvements specific to each study area; address safety issues, truck congestion, environmentally sensitive areas, quality of life and environmental justice concerns; and identify necessary policy and investment changes to meet the vision and goals for each study area. The recommendations should include innovative approaches, the use of technology, demand management based on real-time data on truck loads and movements, and other approaches. As described above, the consultant is encouraged to outline approaches that address community concerns about truck traffic and industrial impacts while also supporting freight and manufacturing activity in the study area.

One goal of this initiative is to identify a pipeline of projects that implement local and regional priorities and qualify for regional and State call for projects. The plans should include a prioritized list of recommended improvements, with a planning-level cost estimate for each improvement and required information appropriate to pursue a variety of funding opportunities. This task will provide appropriate information for all recommended projects.

Draft recommendations should be determined by study findings related to needs, possible funding sources, planned projects, etc., and be presented in ways that will maximize implementation. Both short-term and long-term timeframes should be addressed, and the consultant may choose to provide scenarios based on timespan, goals, and or funding potential.

The implementation plans should describe the actions (and identify the responsible parties) required to designate or improve truck routes, make policy changes, pursue funding, address environmental or livability concerns, and improve the study areas as economic engines in the freight industry. These documents will likely include, but not be limited to:

- Transportation policy changes (e.g., encouraging local governments' reporting of their routing and restriction information to IDOT);
- Potential access improvements, spot geometric improvements, and connectivity improvements on local-, county-, and state-jurisdiction roads;
- Uniform roadway signage and wayfinding improvements;
- Infrastructure improvements (including bridges);
- A prioritized list of recommended improvements, with a planning-level cost estimate for each improvement, and required information appropriate to pursue a variety of funding opportunities for additional, more detailed study, and prepare for implementation next steps;
- Steps governmental agencies need to take to create implementation pipelines for the recommendations, such as adequately preparing to meet funding source requirements and appropriate programming;
- Recommendations for improved east-west connectivity, if any;
- Consistent enforcement of truck regulations;
- Recommended policy changes for local municipalities, Cook County, IDOT, and any other pertinent entity to improve routing and demand management;
- Estimated time-frames and costs;
- Steps for legal action for local municipalities, Cook County or IDOT to implement ordinance changes;
- Policy and infrastructure investment strategies for all recommendations;
- Recommendations for improved delivery management strategies;
- Recommendations that address the negative aspects of truck routing such as noise, traffic, safety, and health concerns; and
- Recommendations that address traffic congestion problems attributable to truck activity.

The consultant should develop, for each study area, a Draft Implementation Strategy for the previously determined recommended truck routes which includes mitigation strategies, capital improvements prioritized to pursue funding, and policy changes, as detailed above.

The Draft Recommended Community Strategies and Implementation Plans shall be reviewed by the Steering Committee and municipalities within the two study areas. The public will also be given the opportunity to discuss and provide comment. Feedback will be used to determine the Final Recommended Community Strategies and Implementation Plans for each study area.

Deliverables:

- Draft Recommended Communities Plan and Implementation Strategy Truck Documents for each study area, with review and comment opportunities for the Steering Committee, municipalities, and public for each study area.

Task 7: Final Truck Routes, Community Strategies, and Implementation Plans for Each Study Area
Based on the previous deliverables, the consultant team shall prepare a final plan for each study area.

The plans should include the final recommendations resulting from Task 5 and Task 6. The plans are expected to be submitted for adoption/approval/acceptance by Cook County and local municipalities, and serve as a guide to implementation, as detailed in Task 6.

Deliverables:

- The Final Truck Routing and Communities Plan and Implementation Strategy for each study area

Any successor will be required to accede to all the terms, conditions and requirements of the Agreement as a condition precedent to such succession.
 - b. The Contractor shall not assign any interest in this Agreement and shall not transfer any interest in the same (whether by assignment or novation), without the prior written consent of CMAP hereto, provided, however, that claims for money due or to become due to the Contractor from CMAP under this Agreement may be assigned to a bank, trust company or other financial institution without such approval. Notice of any such assignment or transfer shall be furnished to CMAP.

CMAP, at its sole option, may terminate or suspend this Agreement, in whole or in part, without penalty or further payment being required, if the Illinois General Assembly, the state funding source, or the federal funding source fails to make an appropriation sufficient to pay such obligation, or if funds needed are insufficient for any reason. The contractor will be notified in writing of the failure of appropriation or of a reduction or decrease.
- 5) Allowable Charges. No expenditures or charges shall be included in the cost of the Project and no part of the money paid to the Contractor shall be used by the Contractor for expenditures or charges that are:

6) Method of Payment.

Project expenditures are paid directly from federal and/or state funds. Because CMAP is responsible for obtaining federal reimbursement for project expenditures, it is necessary that CMAP monitor all procedures and documents which will be used to claim and support project-related expenditures. The following procedures should be observed to secure payment:

- b) Based on services performed, CONTRACTOR may submit invoices as frequently as once a month, but is required to submit invoices no later than fifteen (15) days after the end of each quarter. Failure to submit such payment request timely will render the amounts billed an unallowable cost for which the CONTRACTOR cannot be reimbursed. CMAP is committed to reducing paper use and has established an electronic invoicing system. All invoices are to be submitted through email to:

accounting@cmmap.illinois.gov

All invoices shall be signed by an authorized representative of the CONTRACTOR

- c) Subject to the conditions of this Agreement, CMAP will honor invoices in amounts deemed by it to be proper to insure the carrying out of the approved scope of services and shall be obligated to pay the Contractor such amounts as may be approved by CMAP. Invoices shall detail expenses and amount of time spent on CMAP assignments. If an invoice is not acceptable, CMAP shall promptly provide the Contractor a written statement regarding its ineligibility or deficiencies to be eliminated prior to its acceptance and processing. All invoices for services performed and expenses incurred by CONTRACTOR for the services of this Agreement must be presented to CMAP no later than fifteen (15) days after the end of this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, CMAP shall not be obligated to make payment to CONTRACTOR on invoices presented after said date. No payments will be made for services performed prior to the effective date of this Agreement. All payments will be transferred electronically to Contractor's business bank account. The successful Contractor will be requested to provide transfer numbers for the business bank account when the contract is finalized, in addition to a copy of its IRS W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification).
- d) Each invoice and report submitted must contain: the contract number, a unique vendor invoice number, a description of the services performed, the hourly rates and number of hours worked for each contractor, an itemization of travel and other costs which are chargeable to the contract and the following certification by an official authorized to legally bind the CONTRACTOR:

By signing this payment request, I certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief that the payment request is true, complete, and accurate, and the expenditures, disbursements and cash receipts are for the purposes and objectives set forth in the terms and conditions of this contract. I am aware that any false, fictitious, or fraudulent information, or the omission of any material fact, may subject me to criminal, civil or administrative penalties for fraud, false statements, false claims or otherwise. (U.S. Code Title 18, Section 1001 and Title 31, Sections 3729-3730 and 3801-3812).

- e) The Contractor is required to pay all subcontractors within thirty days of receiving payment for that portion of the work from CMAP. Failure to pay subcontractors within thirty days may jeopardize future CMAP contract awards.
- 7) Conflict of Interest. In order to avoid any potential conflict of interest, the Contractor agrees during the term of this Agreement not to undertake any activities which could conflict directly or indirectly with the interest of CMAP. Contractor shall immediately advise CMAP of any such conflict of interest. CMAP shall make the ultimate determination as to whether a conflict of interest exists.

 - i. If any litigation, claim or audit is started before the expiration of three-year period, the records shall be retained until all litigation, claims or audit findings involving the records have been resolved.
 - ii. Records for nonexpendable property acquired with federal funds shall be retained for three (3) years after its final disposition.

The CONTRACTOR shall include a provision in all of its subcontracts, if any, such provisions.

If corrective action has not been completed within sixty (60) calendar days after service of written notice of suspension, CMAP shall notify the CONTRACTOR in writing that the Agreement has been terminated by reason of default in accordance with paragraph 14 hereof. CMAP may determine to allow such necessary and proper costs which the CONTRACTOR could not reasonably avoid during the period of suspension provided such costs meet the provisions of the U.S. Office Management and Budget 2 CFR 200 in effect on the date first above written.

 - c. If Termination by Default is effected by CMAP, an equitable adjustment in the price provided for in this Agreement shall be made, but (i) no amount shall be allowed for anticipated profit on unperformed services or other work, and (ii) any payment due to the CONTRACTOR at the time of termination may be adjusted to the extent of any additional costs occasioned to CMAP by reason of the CONTRACTOR'S default. If Termination by Default is effected by the CONTRACTOR, or if Termination for Convenience is effected by CMAP, the equitable adjustment shall include a reasonable profit for services or other work performed. The equitable adjustment for any termination shall provide payment to the CONTRACTOR for services rendered and expenses incurred prior to termination, in addition CMAP may include cost reasonably incurred by the CONTRACTOR relating to commitments which had become firm prior to termination.
 - d. Upon notice of termination action pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (b) of this clause, the CONTRACTOR shall (i) promptly discontinue all services affected (unless the notice directs otherwise) and (ii) deliver or otherwise make available to CMAP all data, drawings, specifications, reports, estimates, summaries and such other information and materials as may have been accumulated by the CONTRACTOR in performing this Agreement, whether completed or in process.

- a. If the principal purpose of this Agreement is to create, develop or improve products, processes or methods; or to explore into fields which directly concern public health, safety or welfare, or if the Project is in a field of science or technology in which there has been little significant experience outside of work funded by federal assistance; and any discovery or invention arises or is developed in the course of or under this Agreement, such invention or discovery shall be subject to the reporting and rights provisions of U.S. Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-102, and to the pertinent regulations of the grantor agency(ies) in effect on the date of execution of this Agreement.
