4.0 Annual Financial Report for the Year Ending June 30, 2011

Jason Coyle, along with Joe Lightcap from the auditing firm of Baker Tilly presented the Annual Financial Report and Communications from Auditor to Management and the Board for the year ended June 30, 2011. Coyle reported briefly that this had been a “clean” audit and that income (shown on page 5) was greater compared to last year because of the DOE grant. The only material weakness reported in the Communication, which will continue to be reported, is that CMAP (like most governments in Illinois), Coyle reported, does not maintain an external financial reporting department and relies on Baker Tilly for that purpose. Baker Tilly will be invited back to present the material to the full Board in January.

5.0 Funding Options

Following up on last month's discussion, a staff memo had been included in the packet outlined a strategy of moving forward to replacement of the Comprehensive Regional Planning Fund (CRPF).
