Invent the Future GO TO 2040

Get ready to have your say!

To accommodate 2.8 million new residents expected by 2040, our region has some urgent decisions to make in the very near future.

- Should rapid growth outward continue? Or should we consolidate housing and jobs where infrastructure already exists?
- Should we emphasize roads or transit or invest in both?
- How can we reduce energy use while also strengthening our region's economy?

We can't solve everything at once, so it's all about trade-offs. The Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP) has begun a new "Invent the Future" public-input phase of the GO TO 2040 comprehensive regional planning process.

Join us for a preview of CMAP's GO TO 2040 Invent the Future workshops at the Illinois Development Council's Annual Conference on Thursday, July 16, 2009 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

With interactive software and keypad polling, attendees will express preferences about real-world choices that will shape the GO TO 2040 plan - and the future of our region.
