1.0 Welcome and Introductions

Meeting started at approximately 4:12 p.m.

The CAC is pleased to welcome two of our three new members Terry Witt and Abbey Delgadillo to the committee. Phyllis Palmer was unable to join us tonight.

2.0 Moraine Valley Center for Sustainability

CAC member Stephenie Presseller presented a brief history and overview of sustainability at Moraine Valley Community College (MVCC). MVCC is committed to sustainability in the broadest terms – economic, social, health, environmental. The college's efforts range from working with faculty to integrate sustainability into their classroom curriculum (whether it is statistics or English) to engaging students in day-to-day sustainability efforts to a community garden. Her presentation can be found here.

3.0 Member Updates

Lulu Blacksmith described how Wabonsee Community College is presently undertaking a new pathways to prosperity program that links high school students careers. There are currently three pathways the college is working on, information technology, manufacturing, and healthcare.

4.0 Other Business

There was no other business.
