- 4.0 Review of CMAP Working Committees
With the adoption of ON TO 2050, CMAP will be identifying structural and procedural opportunities at the committee level to help facilitate a robust implementation of the plan. CMAP staff will provide information on the background and activities conducted so far as part of this review process.
ACTION REQUESTED: Information
- 5.0 ON TO 2050: Summary of public comments and revisions
The draft version of the ON TO 2050 comprehensive regional plan was available for public comment from June 15 to August 14, 2018. CMAP staff will review the themes of the comments and discuss substantive changes to the plan.
ACTION REQUESTED: Discussion
- 6.0 ON TO 2050: Implementation priorities
CMAP staff will provide an updated overview of recently initiated activities to implement ON TO 2050 recommendations.
ACTION REQUESTED: Discussion
- 7.0 Disinvested areas strategy report
Staff will provide an overview of ongoing research to identify strategies for promoting reinvestment in disinvested areas identified during development of the ON TO 2050 plan. These communities experience a persistent, long-term lack of market investment, leading to declining property values, taxes, employment, and, frequently, population. This presentation will cover the theoretical framework around strategy development and findings from the peer review, to date.

8.0 Regional data scan on traded industry clusters

ON TO 2050 continues CMAP's emphasis on specialized industry clusters as a framework for understanding the regional economy and organizing various strategies for economic development. Staff are developing a data scan on the characteristics, performance, and unique policy and planning needs of metropolitan Chicago's traded clusters. Staff will review initial findings and anticipated activities in completing a final report, expected in early 2019.
